City: State/Zip:

1. Mutual Covenants. Seller agrees to sell and Buyer agrees to purchase the following described real estate, together with all improvements and rights that pertain to such real estate, upon the terms set forth in this contract: 270.98 +/- acres located in Section 1/12 of Jordan TWP.

Exact legal to come from farm abstract.

2. Purchase Price. Buyer agrees to pay Seller $ Buyer to pay Seller $ as earnest money to be hold for the mutual benefit of Buyer and Seller in the trust account of the Sellers attorneys trust account for delivery to Seller at time of closing. The balance, adjusted prorations and/or credits (if any), shall be paid to Seller at closing in cash.

3. Possession and Closing. Seller shall deliver possession of the premises to Buyer at time of closing, which shall be held on or before 5/22/24 at the office of Buyer's lender, Seller's attorney, or such other place at the parties may agree. All prorations including rents, insurance, and general taxes shall be made as of closing.

4. Personal Property. Sold as is where is.

5. Groundwater Hazard Statement. Sellers warrant to the best of their knowledge and belief that there are no abandoned wells, solid waste disposal sites, hazardous wastes or substances, or underground storage tanks located on the Property, the Property does not contain levels of radon gas, asbestos, or urea-formaldehyde foam insulation which require remediation under current governmental standards, and Sellers have done nothing to contaminate the Property with hazardous wastes or substances. Sellers warrant that the property is not subject to any local, state, or federal judicial or administrative action, investigation or order, as the case may be, regarding wells, solid waste disposal sites, hazardous wastes or substances, or underground storage tanks. Sellers shall also provide Purchasers with a properly executed Groundwater Hazard Statement showing no wells, solid waste disposal sites, hazardous wastes and underground storage tanks on the Property.

6. Abstract and Title. Seller, at their expense, shall promptly obtain an abstract of title to the real estate continued through the date of this contract and deliver it to buyers for examination. It shall show merchantable title in Seller in conformity with this contract, Iowa law and the Title Standards of the Iowa State Bar Association. The abstract shall become the property of the Purchaser when the purchase price is paid in full; however, Purchaser reserves the right to occasionally use the abstract prior to full payment of the purchase price. Seller shall pay the costs of any additional abstracting and title work due to any act or omission of Seller, including transfers by or the death of Seller or their assigns. The Purchaser shall provide, at its expense, all policies of title insurance required by its lender.

7. Deed of Conveyance. At the time of closing, Seller shall deliver to Buyer an executed recordable Warranty Deed sufficient to convey the real estate to Buyer or his nominee, in fee simple, subject only to title exceptions permitted herein.

8. Earnest Money on Default. If the Buyer defaults, the earnest money paid under the terms of the Contract shall be forfeited and paid to Seller, or at Seller's election, Seller may proceed in law or equity. If this Contract fails to close through no fault of the Buyer, the earnest money shall be returned to the Buyer. Provided however, if such failure is due to default by Seller, such return to Buyer shall not release Seller from their obligations under this Contract. In the event a dispute arises between Seller and Buyer as to who is entitled to the earnest money, Seller's attorney shall continue to hold the same until such dispute is resolved.

9. Destruction of Premises. If before the earlier of the delivery of the deed, or the transfer of possession, the improvements on the subject property shall be destroyed by fire or other casualty, Buyer shall have the option of declaring this Contract null and void and of receiving his earnest money, or of accepting the subject property as damaged or destroyed and the proceeds of any insurance payable as a result of such destruction or damage, which proceeds Seller agrees to assign to Buyer. In no event shall Seller be obligated to repair or replace damaged improvements.

10. Miscellaneous. Time shall be of the essence of this Contract. Those provisions of this Contract which by their terms necessarily continue beyond the closing of this Contract shall survive the closing. If any of the subject real estate is enrolled in the Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) Buyer agrees to fulfill the Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) contract terms for any of the subject property currently enrolled in the program, and, within a reasonable time after closing, to execute a successor CRP1 contract with the Department of Agriculture.

11. Exchange. Buyer(s) and Seller(s) understand and agree that the Buyer(s) and/or Seller(s) may elect to exchange the property for other real property in a tax-deferred exchange under Section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Buyer(s) and Seller(s) shall cooperate with each other to facilitate said exchange.

12. Taxes. Seller is responsible for paying all property taxes up to day of closing.

13. Government Programs: Buyer acknowledges that it is their responsibility to research and/or uphold any government programs that could be or are currently in place on the property. Buyer is not relying on any other representations regarding accessing government programs.

14. Contingencies: Seller and Buyer both agree this purchase agreement is not contingent upon any terms or conditions other than what is stated in or attached to this contract.

15. Contingency Deadlines: Buyer will have until NA after the final acceptance date to cancel the contract by written notification to the seller if the contingencies cannot be satisfied. Failure to notify Seller within the time specified constitutes a waiver of the contingencies cannot be satisfied.
